North Minneapolis & West Broadway Avenue

North Minneapolis is a largely residential neighborhood just under two miles northwest of Downtown Minneapolis. It is nestled between Highway 100 to the West, Highway 55 to the South, and I-94 to the East. The commercial corridor of West Broadway Avenue is an essential vessel for the community in many ways. Not only does West Broadway boast highly accessible public transportation options and anchors various shopping centers, but it also is home to an array of community-devoted organizations, including but not limited to: EMERGE Community Development, Juxtaposition Arts, Appetite for Change, and Northside Achievement Zone.

West Broadway Avenue is a cultural hub for North Minneapolis, hosting the West Broadway Farmers Market every June through October, as well as the neighborhood's annual FLOW Northside Arts Crawl, a celebration of the arts stretching a mile and a half down the avenue that showcases over 300 local artists.
